

Instructions to fill in the Preliminary Learning Agreement

In order to help our incoming students with their Learning Agreement and also have a prevision on the subjects they are interested in, we need the incoming students to fill in a Preliminary Learning Agreement.

What is a Preliminary Learning Agreement (PLA)?

This document allows us to make a prevision of subjects that incoming students wish to take at our School. This PLA is just for informative purposes.

How to fill in the PLA?

You should fill in your Preliminary Learning Agreement with the courses that would you like to take at our School (you can check this on the EPSEB web: <https://epseb.upc.edu/en>). This document must be signed by you.

Study possibilities:

-Courses from Architectural Technology and Building Construction Degree, Geoinformation and Geomatics Engineering Degree, Master's degree in Building Construction Engineering or Master's degree in Building Construction Management.

Please note that 30 ECTS is the approximate number of credits that you should take during one semester. Take in to account that it is not allowed to take courses from Degree and Master Level at the same time. In case you are applying for the whole academic year you could take courses from Degree Level the first semester and courses from Master Level on the second.

Take in to account that if you are applying for the whole academic year, you will need two Preliminary Learning Agreements, one for each semester.

-Project works in English: The School offers the possibility to take a project supervised in English on one of the following areas: Energy Efficiency and Sustainability, Interior Design, Restoration and Building Materials.

If you are applying for a project work supervised in English, is not compulsory to bring the Spanish or Catalan certificate, but we strongly recommended to have some language knowledge. And during your stay you also must take the free Catalan course.

After reviewing the preliminary academic agreement, if everything is correct, we will notify you by e-mail so you can prepare the final document of academic agreement on the model of your university.
